

JIKIDEN REIKI TRAINING

Shoden Course

Dates: Two Classes

FRI, 09 Feb 2018, 9-3

SAT, 10 Feb 2018, 9-3

OR

SAT, 24 Feb 2018, 9-3

SUN, 25 Feb 2018, 9-3

Place

Hosshin-ji Temple

4566 SW 103rd Avenue,

Beaverton, OR 97005

Fee: $350

Included: manual, tea, light

snack, and certificate in English and Japanese (with your name in Japanese calligraphy).

Instructor

Eri Fukase Luman

sakago@frontier.com

Authentic Japanese Reiki for Body and Mind

Jikiden Reiki in its original simplicity:

- As taught by Dr. Hayashi, including ideas and methods originally conveyed by the founder of Reiki, Mikao Usui
- For new students, as well as those already practicing, offering clarity of process to produce confident, skilled practitioners
- Treats the whole person: body, emotions, mind and spirit
- Safe and effective
- Non-religious

In Shoden level you will learn:

- History, culture and the origins of Reiki
- Reiki for injuries, ailments, anxiety, chronic conditions, habits, relaxation and rejuvenation
- To identify toxin accumulation, and techniques to aid in removal
- To enhance the sensitivity in your hands
- Receive certification by the Jikiden Reiki Institute, Kyoto, Japan

Having started her journey to healing with Western Reiki, Eri eventually found the original form of Reiki that she longed for in Jikiden Reiki. She trained directly under its head, Tadao Yamaguchi, who awarded her Shoden, Okuden, and Shihan-kaku (junior teacher) certificates. Eri has attended Jikiden Reiki World Congresses in Spain and Japan to deepen her knowledge of Reiki.